I was born in Socorro, New Mexico in 1964. I went Yale and got a minor in agriculture and a major in planning. I also went to Harvard Law school. I created and co-owned an organic planting company ... I was also the governor of New Mexico. This is my third year serving in the House of Representatives.

are being effected and their views on how things should be changed. However, I also believe that the people have elected for a reason, and that reason is so that I can make the hard decisions that will help them in the long run. The decisions I make are to help the people and the nation as a whole, and I am willing to explain any and all of my actions to anyone.
